Friends in Christ,

This weekend we focus on the biblical teaching on stewardship. The Church is our Church. It is, therefore, our responsibility to provide for the needs of our Church. So that the Church can continue carrying out the works entrusted to her by our Lord, each one of us must accept his or her financial responsibility. This is a teaching found in Scripture, a teaching of Jesus Christ, and a precept of the Church. Please do your part to support financially the Church which belongs to you and me.

Have a blessed week.

Fr. Scott Mansfield

The annual St. Vincent de Paul Thanksgiving Food Distribution will be held on Saturday, November 20, 2010 at D'Arco Hall. Once again, SVdP is relying on your help to make this project the success it has always been. On Saturday, October 23, SVdP will begin collecting food items for this event. Suggested items include stuffing, instant mashed potatoes, gravy mix, cranberry sauce, canned vegetables, sweet potatoes/yams, canned pumpkin, frozen pies, or anything God may inspire you to provide for these families in need. Please wait until after November 12 to bring turkeys, hams and frozen pies. Your donations can be placed in the basket in the lobby at St. John Vianney Church on Saturday 4:00 p.m. Mass, Sunday at the 8:00 and 10:00 Masses and during the week on Wednesdays and Thursdays when we open up for private prayer. As always, we greatly appreciate your generosity. If you are inspired to volunteer and help, or need more information, please call the office at 892-0526. Thank you.

Next week (November 20-21), we will take up the Collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. (CCHD) CCHD was founded 40 years ago by the bishops of the United States when they realized that the lives of those in need would not improve until the systems and policies that keep people in poverty were changed. For 40 years, CCHD has funded community groups that seek justice and create lasting change. Please give generously! Visit www.povertyusa.org for more information.

December Holy Days of Obligation and Christmas Masses

Dec 8th, 7PM - Immaculate Conception of the Virgin Mary
Dec 24th, 5PM and 7PM - Christmas Eve
Dec 25th, 8AM and 10AM - Christmas Day
Dec 26th, 8AM and 10AM - Sunday Mass

Christmas Mass does not meet your Sunday Obligation so plan on going to Mass for Christmas and again on Sunday Morning since there will be no Saturday Mass to fulfill Sunday Obligation.

Little Tony came into the kitchen where his mother was making dinner. His birthday was coming up and he thought this was a good time to tell his mother what he wanted. "Mom, I want a bike for my birthday."

Now, Little Tony was a bit of a troublemaker. He had gotten into trouble at school and at home. Tony's mother asked him if he thought he deserved to get a bike for his birthday. Little Tony, of course, thought he did.

Tony's mother, being a Christian woman, wanted him to reflect on his behavior over the last year, and write a letter to God and tell him why he deserved a bike for his birthday. Little Tony stomped up the steps to his room and sat down to write God a letter.

LETTER 1:

Dear God:

I have been a very good boy this year and I would like a bike for my birthday. I want a red one.

Your friend, Tony

Tony knew this wasn't true. He had not been a very good boy this year, so he tore up the letter and started over.

LETTER 2:

Dear God:

This is your friend Tony. I have been a pretty good boy this year, and I would like a red bike for my birthday.

Thank you, Tony

Tony knew this wasn't true either. He tore up the letter and started again.

LETTER 3:

Dear God:

I know I haven't been a good boy this year. I am very sorry. I will be a good boy if you just send me a red bike for my birthday.

Thank you, Tony

Tony knew, even if it was true, this letter was not going to get him a bike. By now, he was very upset. He went downstairs and told his mother he wanted to go to church. Tony's mother thought her plan had worked because Tony looked very sad.

'Just be home in time for dinner,' his mother said. Tony walked down the street to the church and up to the altar. He looked around to see if anyone was there. He picked up a statue of the Virgin Mary, slipped it under his jacket and ran out of the church, down the street, into his house and up to his room. He shut the door and sat down and wrote his letter to God.

LETTER 4:

I GOT YOUR MAMA. IF YOU WANT TO SEE HER AGAIN, SEND THE BIKE.

Signed, YOU KNOW WHO

I spent a day with my Grandson

While I was babysitting my Grandson Benjamin yesterday I took him to the Adoration Chapel with me. As we were walking in I told him we had to be very quiet while we were in the chapel. He asked me why and I told him because people were praying. He asked me what's that? I told him talking to God. So we went in and sat down and he was being very good and very quiet. Then he leaned over and whispered in my ear "When does God show up?"

Aren't grandkids great!

The Constitution of the United States

Amendment XIII (1865)

Section 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Amendment XIV (1868)

Section 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Section 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice President of the United States, Representatives in Congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion, or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

Section 3.

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Section 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Section 5.

The Congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.
