Ramblings XXXX by Carl Beyer and Friends

We are switching bulletin editor next bulletin so be sure and give feedback and comments to bulletin@sjvnm.org. Though I have been much less involved since Janis taken over I have been involved. Please be sure and thank Janis for all her hard work over the past years. Personally, I have loved doing the bulletin but the time has come to cut the cord and hand it over completely to Christy Glaser.

Though if you wish me to keep up my ramblings just send an eMail to bulletin@sjvnm.org or tell Father to keep me writing, and if you do not well the same places to comment.

I kind of like Lent coming early to get it started and over with but this year we are waiting till March 5th. Well gives you time to break the New Year resolutions and try again for lent. That makes Easter April 20th. Way into camping season where I do not like to be sacrificing. But then again who like sacrificing and if so then it is not.

Hope to write more later but up to you. After all this is only my fortieth ramble. God Bless and enjoy 2014, it is off to a good start.
