Friends in Christ Jesus,

Peace.

Here are some things you need to know:

Rosary Leaders and Snackers Needed. We are in need of more people who will dedicate themselves to lead the praying of the rosary before the weekend Masses. Also, we are in need of a few more people who can serve coffee and cookies after the two Sunday Masses. If you are interested in either of these ministries, please visit the Information HQ and leave your name and phone number.

Mass Intentions: We continue to take Mass intentions for all Masses celebrated at SJV. However, we are allowed only three intentions per Mass, and the intention book fills up quick. Please contact Liz Large between the hours of 10 AM and 3 PM, Monday through Friday to get your Mass intention/s in. Thank You.

Sacrificial Giving: Please remember that it is a duty for the Christian to tend to the financial needs of his or her church community. Your church of SJV is brought to you by you. Without your financial support we will sink, so give till it hurts just a bit.

Have a blessed week.

Fr. Scott Mansfield.

Two Little Boys

A couple had two little boys, ages 8 and 10, who were excessively mischievous. The two were always getting into trouble and their parents could be assured that if any mischief occurred in their town their two young sons were in some way involved.

The parents were at their wits end as to what to do about their sons' behavior. The mother had heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children in the past, so she asked her husband if he thought they should send the boys to speak with the clergyman.

The husband said, 'We might as well. We need to do something before I really lose my temper!' The clergyman agreed to speak with the boys, but asked to see them individually. The 8 year old went to meet with him first. The clergyman sat the boy down and asked him sternly, 'Where is God?'

The boy made no response, so the clergyman repeated the question in an even sterner tone, 'Where is God?' Again the boy made no attempt to answer. So the clergyman raised his voice even more and shook his finger in the boy's face, 'WHERE IS GOD?'

At that the boy bolted from the room and ran directly home, slamming himself in the closet. His older brother followed him into the closet and asked what had happened. The younger brother replied, 'We are in BIG trouble this time. God is missing and they think we did it.'

St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, "When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say "We are unprofitable servants; we have only done what we were obliged to do."

This week, please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned, for indeed we are only doing "What we are obliged to do".

Rosary Leaders are needed for 8AM & 4pm Mass.
